

YOKOGAWA

Employee Spotlight

Andy Bloodworth

QHSE & IT Manager
Yokogawa Marex

My role is varied, challenging and time-absorbing

Introducing Andy Bloodworth

Job Title: QHSE & IT Manager
Yokogawa Marex Office - Cowes

When did you join Yokogawa Marex?
January 18th 1983

What are you responsible for?
Quality Management systems, Health & Safety, Environment, facilities, procurement, and management of the company's ICT services.

Describe yourself in three words:
Reliable, Pragmatic, Affable

Fun fact about you:
Commonly known by my family as 'Mr Grumpy'

Secret talent no one knows about?

Old wooden boat restoration – over this Covid lockdown period, I have learnt some old boat building skills and I am restoring an old wooden dinghy my father once owned.

If you could have a super power, what would it be and why?

In a TV programme called the ‘Tomorrow People’ they had the ability to think of a place and they’d be there – it would save on all the flying.

Best concert you ever attended?

The Eagles farewell Tour at the O2 London 2017

What were your favourite bands?

The Beatles, BeeGees, and 70’s Glam Rock

Have you got any favourite quotes?

Not really but one I am prone to use myself is “It’s not rocket science”.

