

Installation of Windows Security Patches

As a client facing system the Exaquantum server should be updated promptly with Windows Security Patches as they are released by Microsoft and in accordance with local IT policies.

YMX should be contacted prior to the installation of Service Packs.

YMX will not guarantee the function of the system with non YMX tested and verified security patches applied, however support will be provided through the customer's support contract to resolve problems that may arise.

(checked 04/10/2017 - RLT)